

I do NOT want the federal government changing the law to weaken the Wisconsin No-Call laws. It is a state's right to enact tough laws like this so it's citizens will not be harassed by unwanted solicitation. The Consumer Banking Association is no exception. If I want to hear from them I'll call them. Otherwise, don't bother me - I'm not interested.